

Indefinite Articles

Indefinite articles are words that introduce non-specific nouns. There are four; two mean “a” and two mean “some.” It is important that the article agrees in gender and number with the noun that is being introduced.

un

una

unos

unas

Examples:

una pluma → unas plumas
un bolígrafo → unos bolígrafos
un examen → unos exámenes

“A/SOME”

Directions: Write the indefinite article and noun pictured below in both the singular and plural forms. Use your Unit 3 Vocabulary handout to help determine each noun’s gender.

Singular		Plural
un lápiz	 Example: lápiz	unos lápices
	 1. computadora
	 2. cuaderno
	 3. mochila
	 4. examen

FLIP OVER →

Singular		Plural
	 5. pluma
	 6. bolígrafo
	 7. maestra
	 8. estudiante
	 9. clase
	 10. borrador
	 11. pizarra
	 *12. mapa

We'll check this together during the last 5 minutes of class.